higher than that at which the articles were available in the market.

Considering the fact that the alleged offences took place six years ago and that most of the evidence which the investigating officer seek to collect would be in the form of documents, custodial investigation of these three retired Officers may not be necessary. In view of this, notwithstanding fervent appeals of the learned Additional Public Prosecutor, these three applicants are entitled to be released on anticipatory bail in the event of their arrest. The applications are, therefore, allowed on the following terms :

In the event of arrest, the applicants may be released on P.R. Bond of Rs.20,000/- (Rupees Twenty thousand only) each with solvent surety in the like amount on the condition that the applicants shall be available for interrogation by the Investigating Officer as and when required and shall attend the Office of the investigating Officer every Monday, Wednesday and Friday between 11.00 A.M. and 12.00 noon.
